

CLAIM

What I claim as my invention is the configuration of a contracted anchoring head on a cannulated fixation screw barrel that will allow fixation of a fractured neck of a pediatric proximal femur while eliminating the onset of growth arrest or fusion of the epiphyseal plate secondary to screw thread bridging of the plate.